

Friday 17th July (Last day of school 😊)

Maths

Final day before the summer holidays! One more maths challenge for you to complete.

Remember to keep working at your times tables over the summer – you will need them for Year 5! You will still be able to use TTR over the holidays.

English

A look at another book!

Click on the link to hear extracts from the book 'Agents of the Wild: Operation Honeyhunt' by Jennifer Bell and Alice Lickens.

Summer holidays are here! Don't forget to read, how many books can you read over the summer?

Times tables, don't forget them, they will really help you out in Year 5! Create your own competition at home, who is better than you? Can you beat your parents?

Have fun and stay safe and see you all in September!
