

My Communities

People belong to different groups. This could be the country that you and your family belong to or the religion you follow. It might be a sports group, like a football or gymnastics team. You might belong to a group, such as Beavers or Rainbows. In the olden days, people had coats of arms, which explained more about themselves. Design your own coat of arms showing the groups and people you belong to.

