We are seeking to appoint an enthusiastic, highly motivated and innovative practitioner who has a proven track record of excellent teaching and a deep understanding of how children learn. If this is you, please do apply.

The successful candidate will:

- be an excellent practitioner with high expectations and a commitment to raising standards.
- have excellent classroom management skills; be proficient in planning, assessment, and target setting.
- have the capacity to inspire and motivate children within a creative curriculum.
- be a reflective practitioner dedicated to his or her own professional development.
- be prepared to be involved in the wider life of the school.
- be committed to working in partnership with parents and other professionals.
- be efficient, flexible, well-organised and an excellent team player.

At Legacy Learning Trust, we are a strong, growing, cross-phase Trust, rooted in our local community and committed to placing learners and learning at the heart of all that we do.

We welcome applications from candidates who align with the values we pride ourselves upon:

- Strong relationships
- High expectations and aspirations
- Equality and equity
- Celebrating diversity

Breckon Hill Primary School is part of The Legacy Learning Trust.

We are a mainstream primary school that is committed to inclusive education and meeting the needs of all the children in our care. We look to ensure children make the most progress they can, in all areas of school life. High quality staff to support children's learning and emotional and social well-being, a well-planned curriculum and a commitment to developing a strong sense of belonging are at the heart of all we do.

We offer you:

- A wonderful place to work, with supportive, hardworking colleagues and governors who care passionately about our school and local community;
- Collaborative working with colleagues from other trust schools.
