Comments from Parents and Carers

Homework related to what they are learning that week, helps parents know what they are learning and how they are doing on that subject

My son is absolutely loving school as his teacher is excellent

I think it's such a great idea having a parents' meeting around 6 weeks in to starting reception as it really put my mind at ease knowing my child is settled and getting to meet the teachers on a 1 to 1 basis.

My kids are happy in Breckon Hill School

We are very happy with this school and the teachers.

The parents' meeting was so helpful. Very supportive teachers and staff. Excellent change in my child's writing. I am so thankful.

The teacher communicated so effectively and reassured me about my child's progress. She also offered practical suggestions for improvement

Education is brilliant. I like all Breckon Hill staff they are very kind with students and parents. I see my son good progress in Breckon Hill school

Thank you so much all Breckon Hill staff.

Teaching staff are doing great job; meetings give more information.

The teachers are doing an amazing job with helping my son in the classroom, because he's really unregulated and they are all are trying to find the best solution for him, to help him in his day

Excellent experience I feel staff are really helping my son to progress on his education through early years.

Great teachers. Thank you, Mrs Smith, thank you Mrs Turley, thank you Mrs Harrison.

This is very helpful for feedback mechanism, more parenting session would be crucial to progress the process.
